First Transnational Meeting of the MILITARY GENDER STUDIES (MGS) Project

On December 15, 2020, the first meeting between partners of the Transnational Military Gender Studies Project (MGS) took place. The MGS is an ERASMUS + Program strategic partnership, under Key Action 203 (KA203) - Higher Education Strategic Partnership. The MGS Project was approved by the National Erasmus Agency, with Portugal as the coordinating country, through the Military Academy (AM). The strategic partners in this project are Bulgaria (National Military University “Vasil Levski”), Italy (Università Degli Studi di Torino) and Romania (Nicolae Balcescu Land Forces Academy). The meeting took place online, via zoom.
