

Enhancing of Sharing and Collaboration in Cyber Defence

EU Cyber Defence Strategic Priority Areas

1. Supporting the development of Member States cyber defence capabilities related to CSDP;
 - 7 concrete actions (MS, EDA, EEAS).
2. Enhancing the protection of CSDP communication networks used by EU entities;
 - 6 concrete actions (EEAS).
3. Promotion of civil-military cooperation and synergies with wider EU cyber policies, relevant EU institutions and agencies as well as with the private sector;
 - 4 concrete actions on civ-mil cooperation (EDA, ENISA, EC3, MS and other);
 - 6 concrete actions on research and technology in cooperation with the private sector and academia (EDA, Commission, MS and other).
4. Raising awareness through improved training, education and exercise opportunities for the Member States;
 - 8 concrete actions on education & training (EEAS, EDA, ESDC and MS);
 - 4 concrete actions on exercises (EEAS and MS).
5. Cooperate with relevant international partners, notably with NATO, as appropriate.”
 - 8 concrete actions (EEAS, EDA and MS).

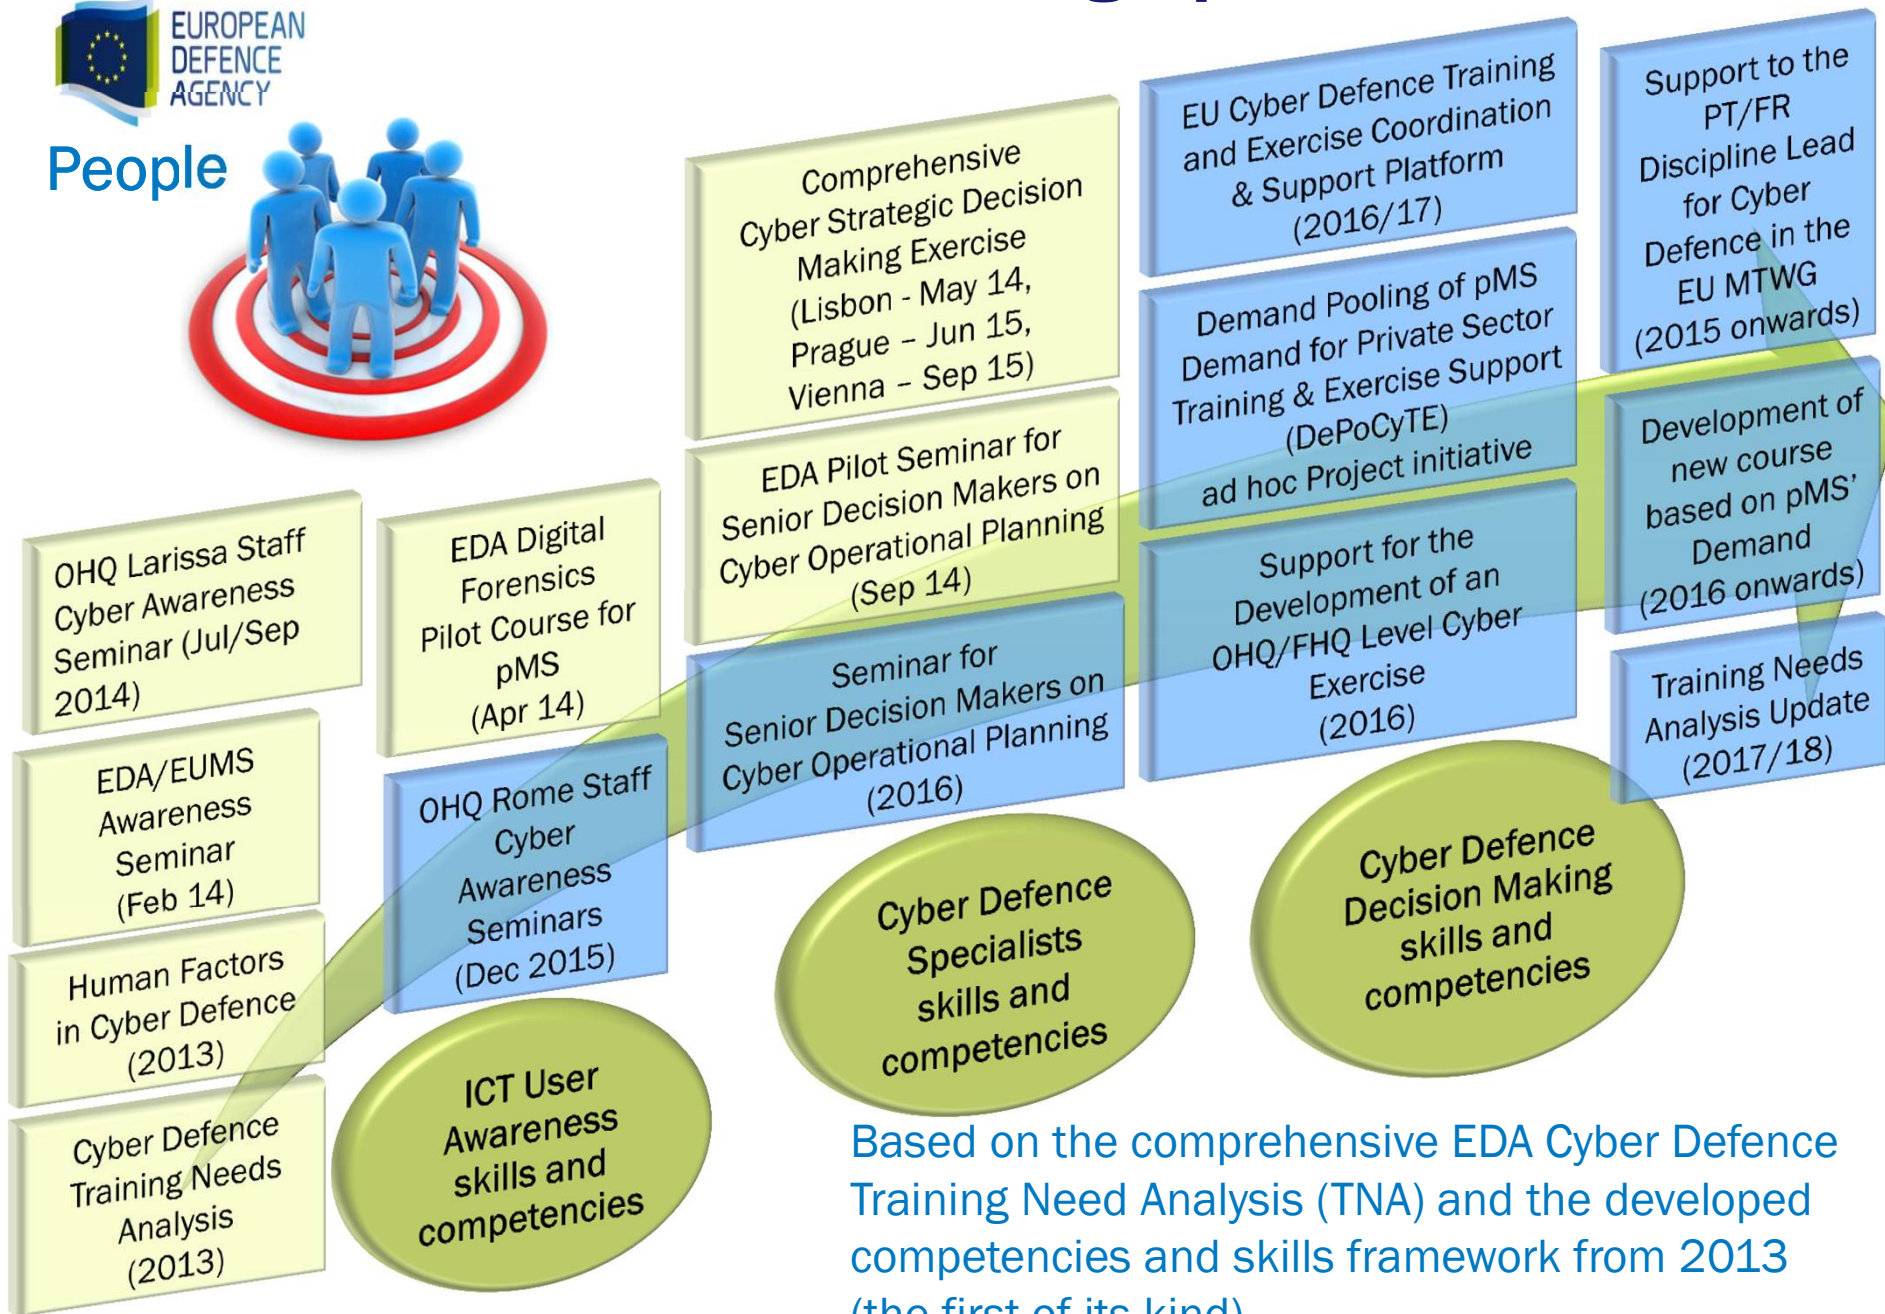

Means to build Cyber Defence Competencies and Skills

Building Operational Excellence

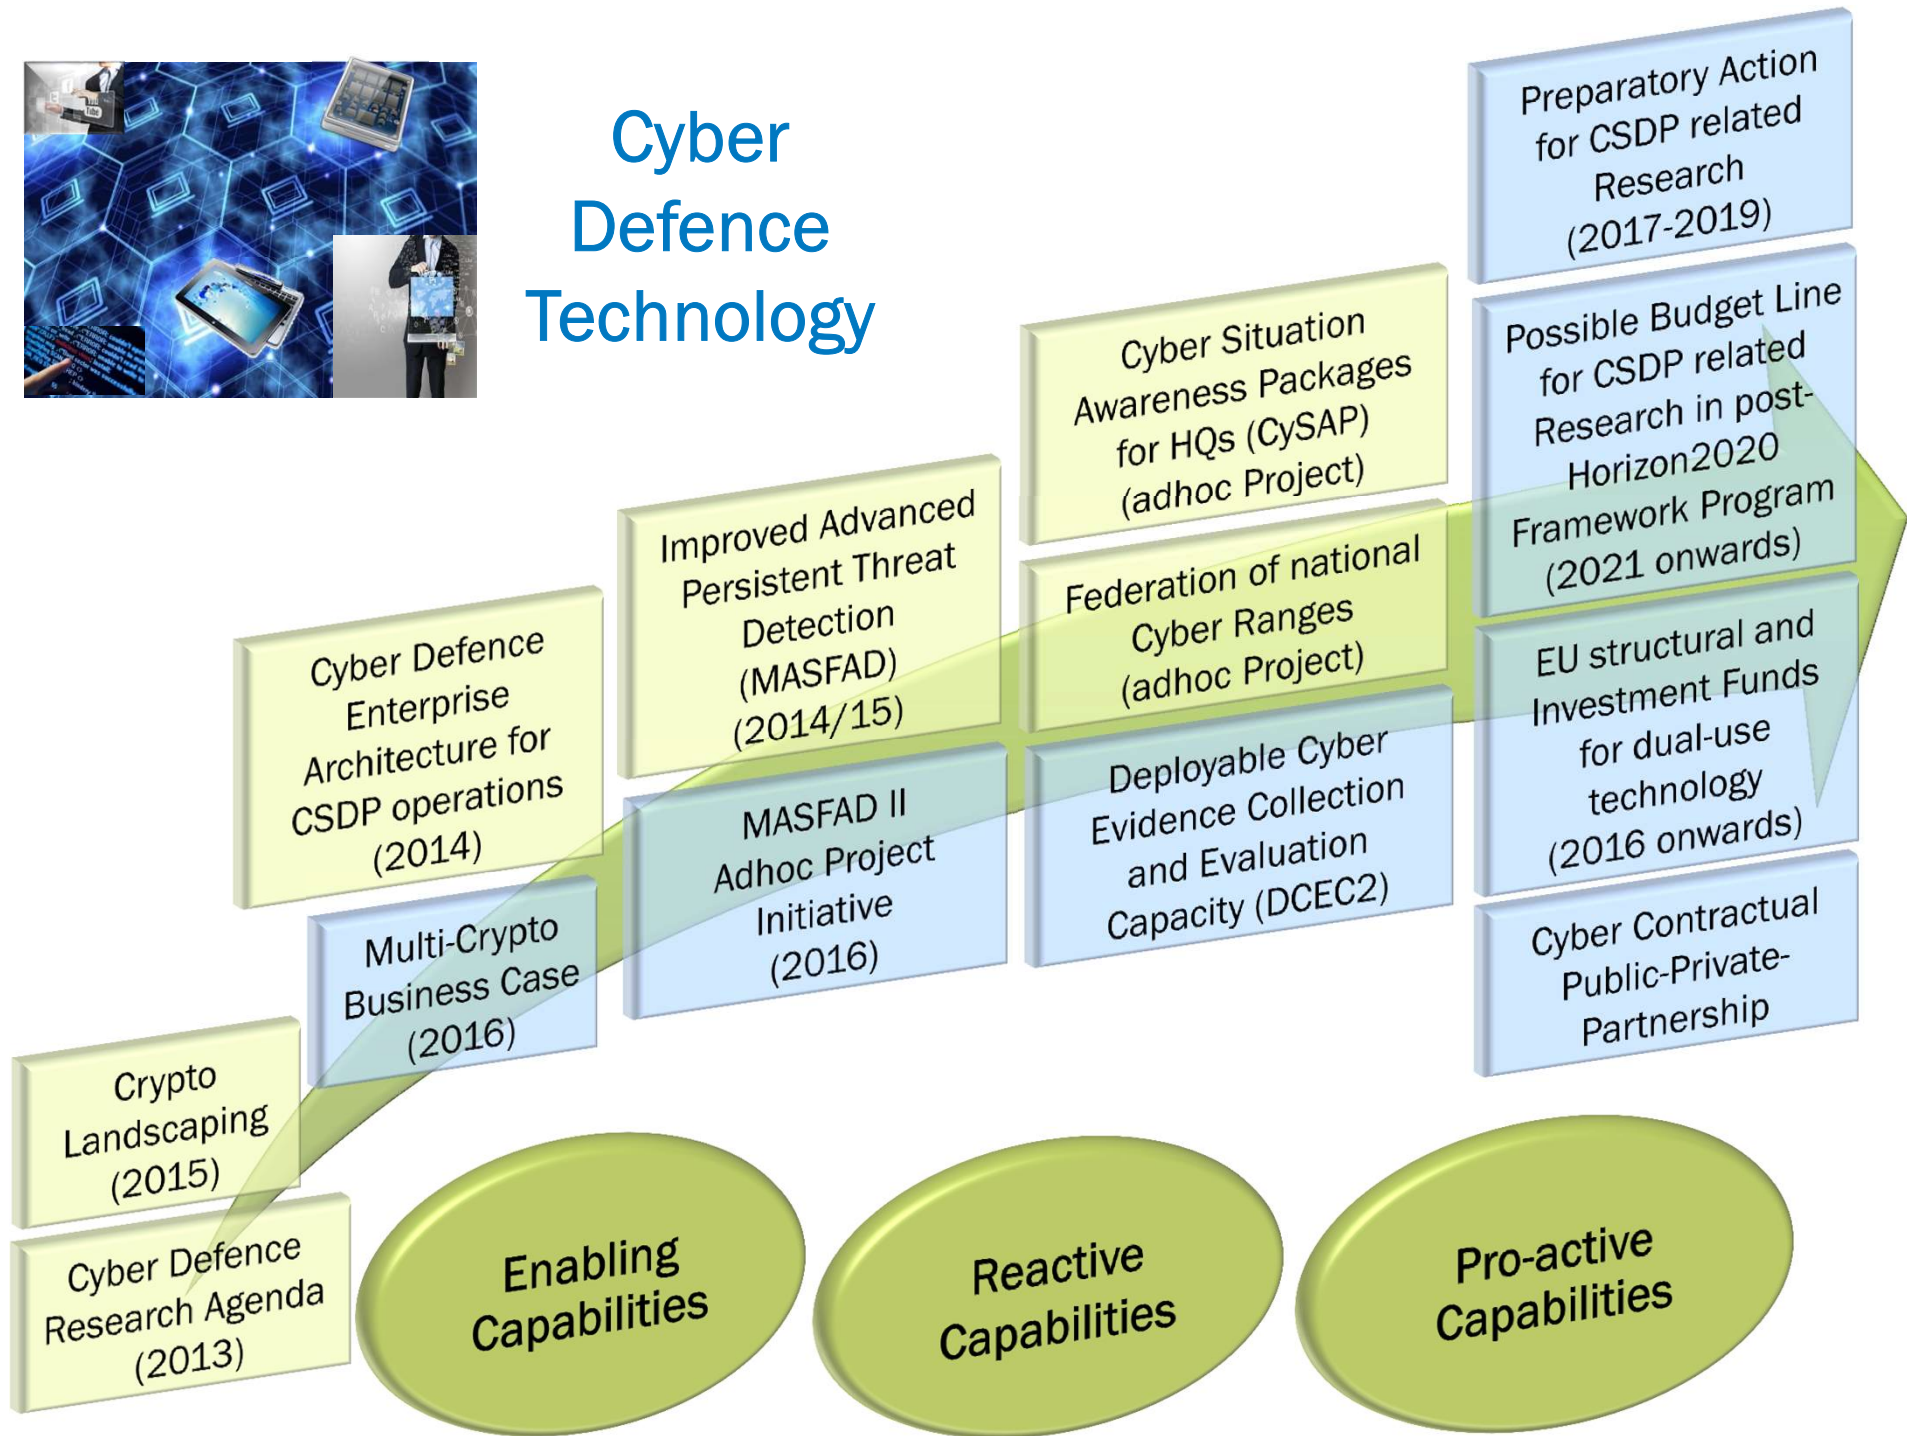

People

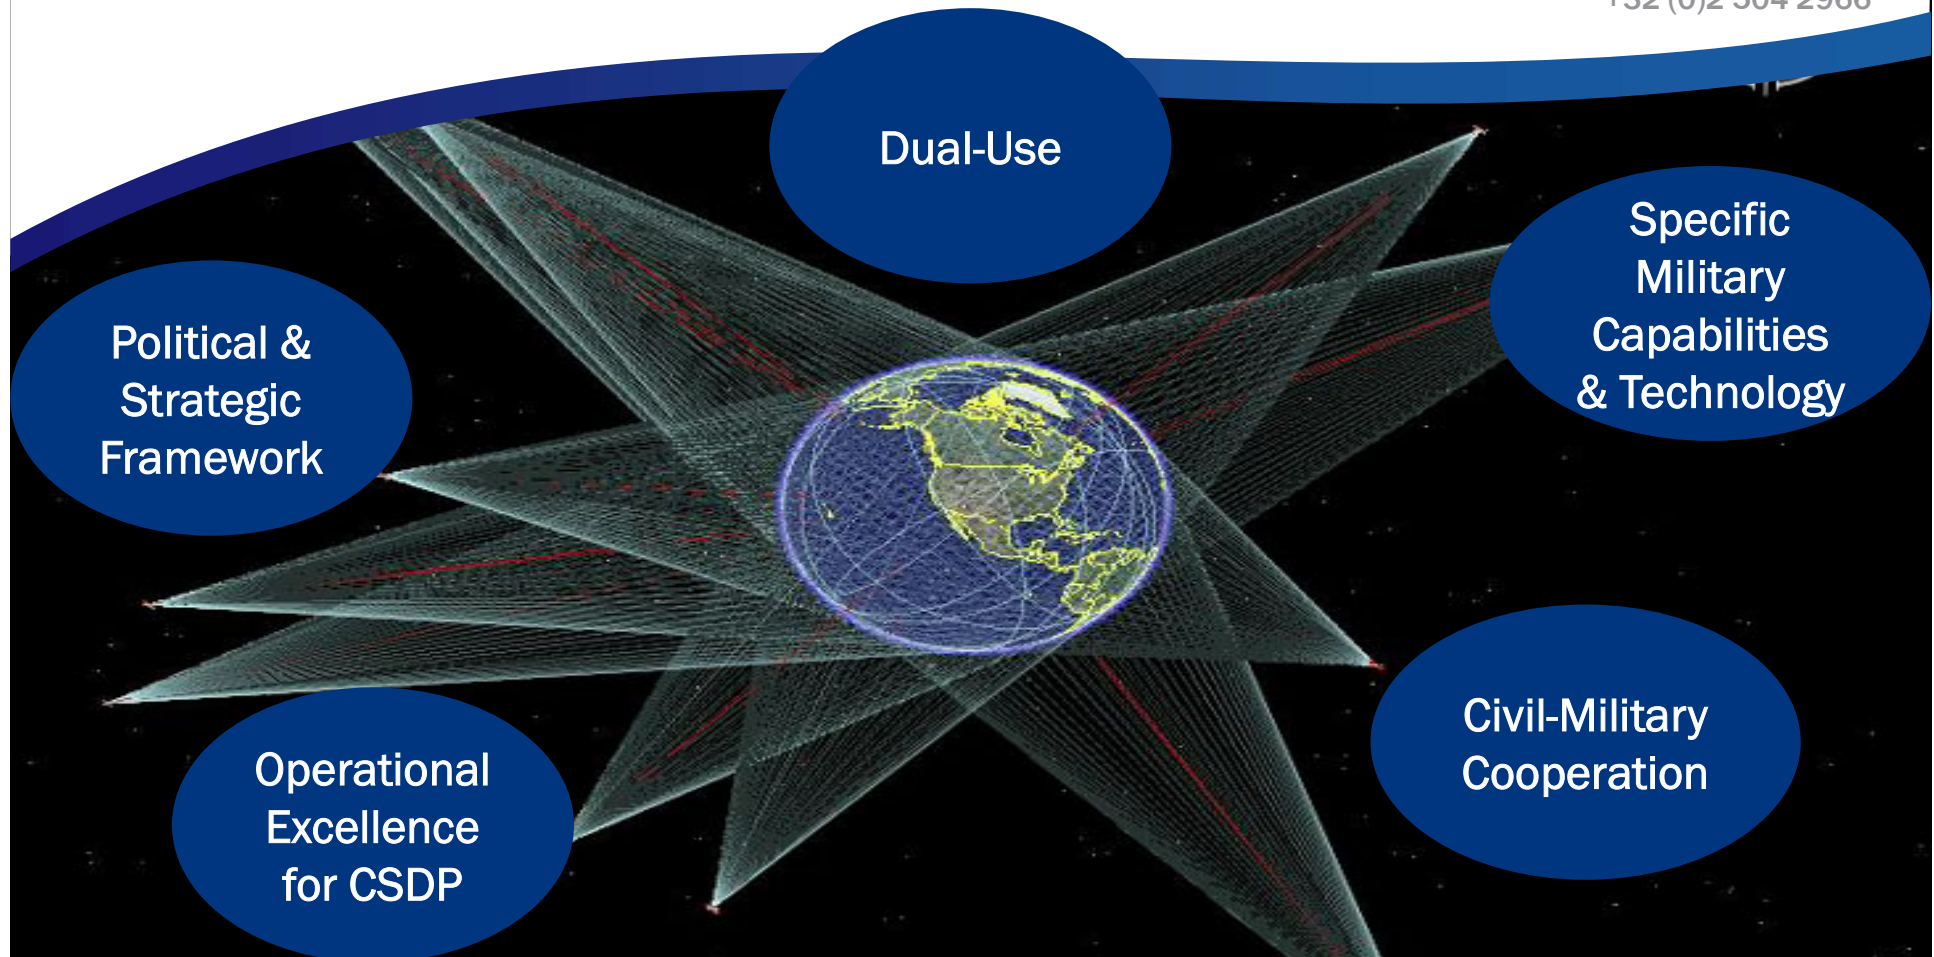

Based on the comprehensive EDA Cyber Defence Training Need Analysis (TNA) and the developed competencies and skills framework from 2013 (the first of its kind)

Cyber Defence Technology

Enhancing of Sharing and Collaboration in Cyber Defence